

Fall Semester ACTING Class 2018 Information Flyer & Registration Form

SLTA is currently enrolling students for its Fall Semester Class 2018. The staff of SLTA has worked to create a diverse offering of classes offered throughout the year to instill a practical, thorough knowledge of the craft of theatre in its students, as well as various specific areas of study to provide a deeper understanding of the tools any actor needs in their acting toolbox.

The Fall Semester Class 2018 will consist of classes each week and will be broken down into three age groups: 6-9, 10-13, & 14-18. Our guest instructor for the semester will be the incredibly talented Anna Maria Sparke. She will teach an in-depth, thorough course on acting, geared to each different age bracket. Take a look at our schedule and class information included in this flyer. If you wish to participate in our FALL Semester Class 2018, please fill out the attached registration form in its entirety and return to SLTA with your payment. Scholarships are available and are awarded based on need. For scholarship information, or if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact us at sltacoordinator@gmail.com or sltacademy@gmail.com

INSTRUCTOR BIO AND HEADSHOT

Anna Maria Sparke

Anna Maria is excited to work with the students of the Shreveport Little Theatre Academy. She received her undergraduate degree in Theatre from Centenary College of Louisiana, and went on to obtain an “advanced Theatre degree” with her Juris Doctorate from the Paul M. Hebert Law Center at LSU in Baton Rouge. A lifelong teacher, Anna Maria began teaching dance at the age of 13, ultimately becoming an Adjunct Professor in the Dance Department at Centenary College for several years. Beginning in 1987, Anna Maria has had the privilege of appearing in many theatrical productions, including starring as the title character in Mary Poppins, and Maria in the Sound of Music, as well as performing in dramatic works such as The Cover of Life and August: Osage County. In 2012, Anna Maria received the PRIDE award for Outstanding Performing Arts Professional from the Shreveport-Bossier Convention and Tourist Bureau. She has won awards from both the Shreveport Times and SB Magazine for both plays and musicals and recently was awarded an SLT Directors’ Award for service to the Shreveport Little Theatre, in particular. She last appeared onstage at the Shreveport Little Theatre in the role of Auntie Mame in the play by the same name. A working triple threat, Anna Maria is ready to bring her experience and technical expertise to her students in a sound, practical and fun way!
